Index

9/11 271
16PF 200
360° feedback 212, 340, 342–6, 419
see also feedback

ABCDEF model of coaching 342 absenteeism 77–96, 156, 277, 384, 456 consequences of 79–83
self-rated 18
abuse 29, 39, 270, 279
AC see Association for Coaching acceptance of difference 204 access to services 387
accreditation 335–6
action directions in stress research 162–3 active coping 110–11
active participation 236, 421–2
active problem solving 367–9
acumen 304, 312
acute stress 269–91
definition 269–71
intervention 277–85
long-term disturbances 274–5
process of coping 272–4
risk factors 276–7
summary and conclusions 285–6
theoretical background 271–2 adaptive learning 299–300 addictions 383–6
addictive comfort zone 448–9 adequate training programs 241–3 adoption of EAPs 389–90 advances in health psychology 471–6 interventions 474–5 positive future 471–3 psychologically healthy workplaces 473–4
advertising jobs 210
affective symptomatology 370
affectivity 65, 101, 105, 109
aggression 29, 35–8, 277, 361, 369–70
as coping mechanism 369–90 and incivility 37–8
negative outcomes 35–6
prevention 36–7
regulation 277
research on 35
alcohol abuse 51, 110, 133, 138–9, 161, 175, 384–9, 393 alienation 447–9, 457, 461 alleviating workplace problems 385 see also employee assistance programs
alpha archetypes 201
ambiguities 30, 153, 159, 201–2, 210, 311, 452, 465
ambulatory blood pressure 60–1 amalgamating aggression 36–7 America On Line 394
American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine 78
American Psychiatric Association 274, 394, 473 American Women’s Health Association 136 anabolism 255, 258–9 analysis 240
anger 107, 157, 174, 361, 370 anonymity 460
antagonism 107
anthropomorphology 11
antisocial action 370, 374 anxiety 18, 50, 63, 105, 112, 126, 133, 157 AOL see America On Line applications of coaching 338–45 ABCDEF model 342 assessment tools 342–5
coaching models 339–40
GROW model 341
leadership models 340–1
leadership pipeline 339
performance coaching 338–9
PRACTICE model 342
recurrent coaching themes 345
appraising stressful situations 101

International Handbook of Work and Health Psychology, Third Edition  Edited by C. L. Cooper, J. C. Quick, and M. Schabracq
INDEX

approach to change 445–69 Arab–Israeli wars 252
Argyris, Chris 10, 300, 417 Aristotle 450
aspirations 102–4
assault 39
assessment centers 211
assessment tools in coaching 342–5 ASSET 432–3
Association for Coaching 330, 335–8 asthma 384
attendance pressure factors 77–96
predictors of presenteeism 83–5 attitudes 130, 150, 422 attribution theory 40–4 audit 434
aunts and uncles 212
authenticity 201, 472
authentizotic entities 422–4 authority 255, 355
over decisions 255
autocracy 421
autonomy 32, 132, 185–6, 189, 204, 355 autopoiesis 446
aversive emotions 457–8 avoidance-oriented coping 110–11, 356, 371 awareness of stress 215 baby boomers 332
back pain 31, 33, 35, 80, 134
background of burnout 25–6 balance 124–6, 156, 201, 264, 317
bankruptcy 271
barriers to advancement 150–1 see also lack of career progress bases for self-service bias 41
basic stress model 222
behaviour-based conflict 363 behavioural model of incivility 40–4
bases for self-service bias 41
incorporating social rationales into model 43–4
social rationales 41–3
behavioural responses to stress 137–9 beliefs about the world 104–9
convergences 107–8
negative affectivity 109 popular concepts 104–7
belonging 260, 458 benefits of improving well-being 430 beta archetypes 201
biochemical reaction 223 black women 139–40
blended EAPs 387
blood lipids 58–9
blood pressure 50–1, 59–61, 89, 107, 134
blunting 110
BMI see body mass indicator body language 306, 459 body mass indicator 138 boredom 199, 450
brief psychotherapy 283–4
building competencies 422 building interventions 427–43
action for improving working lives 434–42 business case 427–31
measuring well-being and engagement levels 431–4
summary and conclusions 442–3
building psychological contract 213–14 bullying 389
burnout 25–47
business case for interventions 427–31 creating well-being initiative wish list 429–30
identifying well-being stakeholders 428 understanding starting point 428–9 value of improving well-being 430–1
business etiquette 44 business value 391–5
effectiveness and outcomes 391–3 return on investment 393–5
see also employee assistance programs
Campbell Soup 394
cancer 107
cardiovascular disease 49–75, 107, 133, 138, 177–8, 257
Career Active System Triad 207 career counselling 212–13
career development 210–12, 313–16
alternative sources of career development support 314–15
key components 313–14
value added to workplace 315–16
career ladder 204, 211 career management practices 209–15 stress management practices 210–15 career mentoring 31 career planning 212–14
career progress 126–30
career workshops 212
career-planning courses 315 careers and stress 197–220 individual implications 215 managerial implications 215 personal differences 200–20 responsibility for stress management 215–16
‘right’ level of stress 205–6
stress management 206–9
INDEX

stress tolerance 197–200 stress-related career management practices 209–15 case examples of coaching 345–6 organizational change 346
performance coaching 345–6
talent management 346
CAST see Career Active System Triad CATS see cognitive activation theory of stress causal blood pressure 60 causes of incivility 39–40
censure pressure 84
Center for Servant-Leadership 319 Center for Women’s Business Research 138–9 centring 454
challenge 201
change 236–7, 332, 411–26, 448–9 management 332, 346, 416–18 and stability 448–9
changing behaviour 421–2
changing common coping assumptions 367–72
active problem solving 367–9
aggression 369–70
directness 370–71
emotion 371–2
weakness 371
changing organizational culture 445–69 changing roles of women 374–5 changing social settings 463 chaos theory 251, 286, 311, 322
CHD see coronary heart disease Chicago Bulls 373–7
child sex abuse 270
childcare 126, 160–3, 359, 362 chronic stress 49–50, 66, 133–4, 183, 270 circumscribed frustration 106 civility 30, 35–40
see also incivility
clarification of leadership work 419 classifications of coping 110–11 client satisfaction with EAPs 391–3, 398 EAP outcomes 391–2
EAP referrals 392–3
clinical symptom relief 391, 397 coaching 31–2, 329–52
applications 338–45
case examples 345–6
definition 329–31
future in organizations 347 process of 333–8
purpose of 331–3
coercion 157
cognitive activation theory of stress 205–6 collectivist perspective on communal orientation 364–5 collegiality 44, 460
combining individual and work need for flexibility 259–62 inducing flexibility 261–2
comfort zone 448–9
common career paths 214–15
communal orientation 353–82
see also women coping
community arena 322
compatibility of convictions and goals 463–6 too little 464–5
too much 465–6
compensation gap 358–9 compensatory resources 225–7 competencies 226, 316, 422 competitive presenteeism 78 complex open systems 296–300 compliance 435
components of career development 313–14 components of EAPs 387–8 compulsive leadership 416 Concentra Managed Care 138 career–health psychology 8–96
coercion 157
confidentiality 335–7, 387
conflict 208, 362–3, 462 confrontation 279
congruence 372
consequences of presenteeism 79–83 conspiracy 457
constructive confrontation 389 constructive leadership 472 contentment 18 context of work and health psychology 2–4, 8–96 future 4
past 2–3 present 3–4 continuous self-renewal 422–4 contracting 336–7
control in workplace 26, 174–8 see also burnout; stress
control–demand model 178–81
control–demand support model 182–3 control–emotion model of stress 183–4
convergences 107–8
Cook–Medley–Ho Scale 106–7 coping 109–12, 272–4
classifications of 110–11 ‘emotion-focused coping’ 111–12
as process 272–4
summary 112
coping wheel 252
INDEX

core technology of EAPs 387–9 alcohol and drugs 388–9 components 387–8
confidentiality 387
crisis 389
core values 419
coronary heart disease 132, 354 cortisol 50, 58, 134, 175, 183 costs of improving well-being 430–1 counselling 212–13, 314–15, 330–1 c covert coping 252–3 c covert insinuative aggression 36 creating shared mindset 418–21
c culture 419
developmental leadership work 419
defining reality 438
defining sickness presenteeism 78–9 definition of stress in context of new technologies 222–3
decision latitude 137, 179, 208, 255–63, 451
defeatism 129
defining reality 438
defining sickness presenteeism 78–9
definition of stress in context of new
technologies 222–3
downtaxing regulations 223 regulatory obstacles 223 regulatory uncertainty 223
definitions of coaching in organizations 330–1 delegation 317
delivering promises 20
dementia praecox’ 457
denial 110, 273
Department of Labor (US) 125–6
Department of Trade and Industry (UK) 124 depression 18, 50, 63, 65, 112, 126, 132–7, 157
depressive leadership 415 derailment 317, 430
detached leadership 415
detailed information 235–6 detrimental aspects of emotion-focused coping 111
developing emotional intelligence 306–9 developing leadership 332, 346
case example 346
developing whole person 295–327 development centers 211 development in personal arena 303–10
deviant moods 457
depression 18, 50, 63, 65, 112, 126, 132–7, 157
development in work arena 310–20
career development 313–16
leading from strengths 316–17
managerial interpersonal skills 311–13
redefining leader’s role 318–20 see also whole-life model
deviant moods 457
diabetes 384
diastolic blood pressure 59–61, 107, 224 difficult tasks 452
diabetic 462
direct overt aggression 35
directness 366, 370–1
discrimination 39–40, 129–32, 138–9, 150–1, 213
disease management programs 90 disorientation 272
distinctive leadership brand 419 distress intensity 111–12
distrust 462
divergent responsibilities 452
doldrums 82
domestic abuse 389
double-bind 139
double-loop learning 300 downsizing 157–8, 206, 313, 386, 461 dramatic leadership 415 drudgery 25
drug abuse 51, 175, 384–9, 393
dual ladder 211
dual-career couples 156–7, 362, 368, 373
DuPont 394
dysfunctional work conditions 455
INDEX

INDEX

e-counselling 396
EAP Business Value Model 394
EAPs see employee assistance programs eating disorders 161 effective work 450–3
  insufficient challenge 450–1 too much challenge 451–3 effectiveness 445–69 challenge of work 450–3 compatibility of convictions 463–6 everyday reality 446–8
  interventions 466–8
  orderliness 453–7
  social embedding 457–63
  stability 448–9
effects of job strain 49–75 effort–reward imbalance at work model 55–6 EI see emotional intelligence elements of interventions 277–9
  see also interventions
embedding 457–63
EMDR see eye movement desensitization and reprocessing ‘emotion-focused coping’ 111–12, 356–7, 371–2
  inability to cope 111–12
  instrumental and detrimental aspects 111 emotional contagion 458 emotional intelligence 306–9, 420–1 relationship management 308–9
  self-management 307
  social awareness and empathy 307–8 emotional state 307 empathy 307–8, 312, 319
emphasis on individualistic orientation 360–1 employee assistance programs 383–407
definition 383
EAP outcomes and business value 391–95 future trends in EAP 395–9 profile of 385–91
summary and conclusions 399
workplace mental health and addictions 383–5 employee benefits 395–6 employee viewpoint on flexibility 255–6 encountering stressful situations 100–1 engagement with work 25–47, 431–4 measuring 431–4 enhancement hypothesis 358 enrichment theory 302–3 envy 413–14
equilibrium 297, 299
ergonomic stressors 228, 232, 243
ERI model see effort–reward imbalance at work model Ernst & Young 396
error management training 242 espoused theory 465
euphoria 123
eureka 423
evaluating interventions 280, 337–8
  coaching 337–8
evaluating well-being initiative wish list 429–30
everyday reality 446–8
everyday work 448–9
examination of rugged individualism model 356–7 exercise 161
exhaustion 25–6, 39, 42, 126, 152, 233
  see also burnout
experience of managers 149–52 barriers to women’s advancement 150–1 cross-cultural research 151–2 glass ceiling 149–50
  exploratory error training 242 expression of feelings 278–9, 305 external EAPs 387
  extraordinary leave 281
  extraversion 101
  extrinsic ERI hypothesis 56 eye movement desensitization and reprocessing 284 FaceBook 439
Factual Autonomy Scale 189 fairness 26–8, 106, 468 Families and Work Institute 126 family 155–6, 321
fanaticism 447
FAS see Factual Autonomy Scale fast-growing organizations 456
feedback 212, 312, 315, 340, 342–5, 419, 461
  fight or flight 123–4 fit 54–5
  five arenas of life 300–3 flexibility 158–9, 251–65, 455
  combining employee and organizational needs 259–62 organizational flexibility 254–8 physiological counterparts of DCS model 258–9 physiological flexibility 251 psychological flexibility 252–3 public health perspectives 262–4
  in the workplace 158–9, 455
  flexplace 359, 372–3 flexitime 158–9, 163, 359, 372, 455 follow-up interviews 391 foresight 319
  formal education 210
  formalized work 451
  Fortune 500 128
INDEX

impact of incivility 39
impact of technology on stress 222–7
  basic stress model 222
  definition of stress 222–3 resources 225–7
  sources of stress 223–5
impeding social contact 462
implementation of new technologies 227–34
  cross-sectional studies 227–9 longitudinal studies 229–34 implications of sickness presenteeism 77–96 imprisonment 451
improving staff well-being 427–43
inability to cope 111–12
incivility 29–30, 37–40
  and aggression 37–8 causes of 39–40
  impact of 39
  instigators of 38
  research on 38
incompatible responsibilities 453 incongruity 28
Indicator Tool 431–4
indirect manipulative aggression 35, 40 individual differences and health 97–170 gender and work stress 123–45 managerial women 147–69
  work stress 99–121
individualistic orientation 353–82 emphasis on 360–1
  see also women’s coping
inducing flexibility 261–2
induction 211
influence of stress 357–9 influencing senior management 442 information 278
informational organizational support 36 infraction 448
insomnia 61–5
instigators of incivility 38
Institute for Psychotrauma (Netherlands) 279 Institute for Women’s Policy Research 125–6 institutionalizing change 422
instrumental aspects of emotion-focused coping 111
instrumental organizational support 36
insufficient challenge 450–1
  decision latitude 451
  formalized work 451
  insufficient meaning 451
  lack of demands 450–1
  integrating support 434
  integrative implementation process 234–7 inter-role conflict 125 internal EAPs 387
internal job openings 210 internality 186
internet-based EAP 396
interpersonal justice 37
interpersonal skills 309, 311–13
interventions 159–62, 209, 277–85, 372–4, 427–43, 466–8, 474–5
  brief psychotherapy 283–4
  in career-related stress 209 elements 277–9
  organizational culture 285
  primary prevention 159–60 psychological debriefing 282–3 tertiary prevention 160–2
  variation in care 284–5
  with victimized employees 279–82
  see also women coping
intra-psychic coping 272 intrinsic ERI hypothesis 56 introspection 305 intrusion 273
involvement 439
irritation 18, 227, 275, 277
ISO 9241–2 238, 240
ISO 13407 240
iso-strain 57, 256
isolation 129–30, 138, 460 iterative development 240–1
JCQ see Job Content Questionnaire JDC-S model see job demand-control-support model
JDS see Job Diagnostic Survey
Job Characteristics Model 237 Job Content Questionnaire 180–1, 189 job and employee health 173–95, 49 control predispositions 185–8 control and stress in the workplace 174–8 models of control and stress 178–84 moving forward 188–90
job demand-control-support model 56–63
  and blood lipids 58–9
  and blood pressure 59–61 and micro-inflammation biomarkers 61 and sleep problems 61–3 Job Diagnostic Survey 189 job insecurity 77–8
job satisfaction 152, 181, 186, 358 job strain 49–75
  blood lipids 58–9
  blood pressure 59–61
  health consequences of stress 51–4 micro-inflammation biomarkers 61 model see job demand-control-support
  model
objectives 49–51
INDEX

job strain (cont’d.)
physiological risk factors 54–8
sleep problems 61–3
summary and conclusions 63–8
job tenure 31–2
job-related stressors 359

kaleidoscope careerists 201, 216 karoshi 200
Kent Police 436, 438
key workplace people 29
Kotter, John 10

Laboratory for Research in Athletics 329
lack of career progress 126–30, 150–1
glass ceiling 127–9
social isolation 129–30
lack of career workplace orderliness 454–6 dysfunctional work conditions 455
fast-growing organization 456 flexible working hours 455 flexible workplace 455 ill-functioning equipment 455 pool working 456
sick leave 456
lack of demands 450–1
lack of money 202
lack of privacy 462–3 large-scale disasters 281 lateness 156
lateral moves 210
leadership 332, 411–26, 472 development 332 positive 472
and stress 413–16
leadership models 340–1
leadership pipeline 339
leadership styles 415–16
leading from strengths 316–17
learning 420 learning curve 415
learning intentions 305
learning organizations 234–43, 299–300
adequate training programs 241–3
integrative implementation process 234–7 participative task and job design 237–9
personal help networks 241–3
user-oriented hard- and software design 239–41
learning to master change 236–7 legitimacy of demands 43–4 litigation 213
locus of control 100–1, 104–6, 174, 185–7
Lone Ranger 356
loneliness 129, 413
long-term disturbances 274–5

longitudinal studies on technologies 229–34 losing concentration 451–2 losing power 414
low compatibility levels 464–5 ambiguity 465
organizational change 464–5
low social embedding 460–2 communication problems 462 decay of social networks 461
distrust 462
feedback 461
impeding social contact 462
massive layoff 461
role transitions 461
low-pace fit 198–9
magic bullet thinking 436 making appraisals 305
maladaptive health responses 49–75 malevolence 414
manageability 105
management consultation 386
management development 295–327 in complex open systems 296–300
definition 295–6
development in personal arena 303–10
development in work arena 310–20
manager’s whole-life model 300–3
staying alive 320–2
summary and conclusions 322
management of stress 206–9 managerial awareness of stress 215 managerial interpersonal skills 311–13 managerial men 149–52
managerial women 147–69
and men 149–52
occupational stress and health 152–8 research and practice 158–63 see also women coping; working women manager’s whole-life model 300–3 managing change 332, 346
case example 346
market penetration 389–90
Maslach Burnout Inventory 27
Maslow, Abraham 202, 329–30 mastering change 236–7
ME 466
meaningless work 451
measuring employee work performance 397 measuring well-being 431–4
audit 434
engaging managers 434
integrating support 434
staff communication 433
mechanisms of stress experience 100–2 appraising stressful situations 101
dealing with stressful situations 101 encountering stressful situations 100–1
personality profiles 101–2
reacting to stressful situations 101
men’s club mentality 359, 375 mental disorders 278 mental fatigue 228
mental health 89, 276, 383–5
in the workplace 383–5
mental vision 300 mentoring 31, 150, 159–62, 211–12
metabolism 50
MI see myocardial infarction Michigan model of health responses 52, 271 micro-inflammation biomarkers 61, 64, 67, 177 middle regions 448–50
minimax hypothesis 179
mirrors 201
mismatch of demands over resources 26 models of coaching 339–40 models of control 178–84
control–demand model 178–81
control–demand–support model 182–3
control–emotion model 183–4 mommy track 373
monitoring 38, 110
monotony 231
morale 384, 394
morbidity 52–3, 57
moving forward 188–90
muddling through 227, 235
multiaxial model of coping 365–72
changing common coping assumptions 367–72
multicolinearity 180–1
multifactor etiology 63–4 multiple conflicting roles 124–6 multitasking 131
musak 460
myocardial infarction 50, 257–8 MySpace 439
nAch see need for achievement National Business Group on Health 383
National Occupational Standards 335, 347
National Study of the Changing Workforce 32 Neanderthal leadership 472 need for achievement 103 need for EAPs 383–5
needs 259–62, 334
negative affectivity 65, 105, 108–9
negative outcomes of aggression 35–6 neurolinguistic programming 340 neuroticism 82, 101, 105, 108, 112, 413–14
new technologies and stress 221–50 impact of technological change on stress 222–7
implementation of new technologies 227–34
implications of new technologies 234–43
summary and conclusions 243
New York 32–3, 271
NLP see neurolinguistic programming non-intervention 34–5 norm violation 30
not-for-profit coaching bodies 335 nurture 34
OAPs see occupational alcohol programs obesity 54, 65, 67–8
obsolescence 421
occupational alcohol programs 385–6, 388 occupational health psychology 302–3, 310 occupational stress 152–8
dual-career couples 156–7
organizational downsizing 157–8
role conflict 154–5
sexual harassment 157
work and family 155–6 off-the-job social activities 360 office gardens 462
OHP see occupational health psychology old boys’ network 150, 153, 158, 360 open-mindedness 311 optimal stress level 215 optimism 104, 106, 230 Orange County 395
orderliness 453–7
too little 454–6
too much 456–7
organization management development 296–300 management development programs 298–300 organizational action and presenteeism 87–92 organizational approaches to health 409–70
building interventions 427–43
culture and leadership 411–26 stress and effectiveness 445–69 organizational career development programs 315 organizational change 346, 464–5
organizational change management 416–18
organizational culture 280–91, 285, 411–26, 445–69
change management 416–18
changing 445–69
leadership and stress 413–16
summary and conclusions 423–4 transformational processes 418–23 organizational development 332 organizational downsizing 157–8
organizational flexibility 253–8
employee’s point of view 255–6 introduction of social support 256–8
organizational improvements 474 organizational perspective on stress management 206–9 organizational value of EAPs 394 outcomes of EAPs 391–3
referrals 392–3
outcomes of psychological contract 14–15 outcomes of work stress 54–8
effort–reward imbalance at work model 55–6
job demand-control-support model 56–8
person–environment fit model 54–5 outreaching 284
outsourcing 461
over-challenging work 451–53
ambiguities 452
difficult tasks 452
divergent responsibilities 452
incompatible responsibilities 453
serious consequences 452 too much to do 451–2 over-commitment 56
over-orderliness 454–6
overload-related stress 153, 199–200
overtaxing regulations 223 oxytocin 134
P-E-Fit model see person–environment fit model PA see performance appraisal palliative coping 111
pamphlets on career issues 211
paramilitary organizations 457 Pareto principle 467
part-time work 158–9 participative implementation process 234–7
active participation 236
detailed information 235–6
learning to master change 236–7
participative task and job design 237–9
past situation of work psychology 2–3 PATH model 473–4
pathogenesis of insomnia 61–5 pausing 419
paying attention to actions 305–6 people management 215–16, 347
performance appraisal 212
performance coaching 338–9, 345–6
case example 345–6
peritraumatic dissociation 272, 276 persistent aversive tension 222 person-oriented organizational culture 463 personal development 303–10
personal differences 200–4
authenticity 201
balance 201
challenge 201
personal help networks 241–3 personal mastery 299–300 personal relationship with the world 104–9
personality profiles 101–2
person–environment fit model 54–5 physiological counterparts of demand–control–support model 258–9 physiological flexibility 251
physiological responses to stress 133–5 physiological risk factors 54–8 play 420
POB see positive organizational behaviour
pool working 456
popular concepts about self 104–7 positioning of coaching in organization 333–4 positive affectivity 101 positive discrimination 213 positive organizational behaviour 472 positive psychology 330, 471–2 posting job openings 210 posttraumatic stress disorder 175, 274–6, 280–4 power sharing 438–41
powerlessness 272
practical assistance 280
PRACTICE model of coaching 342
Practices for Achievement of Total Health model see PATH model ‘praecox Gefühl’ 457
pragmatic utilitarianism 330 predictors of burnout 26–9
predictors of presenteeism 83–7
attendance pressure factors 83–5
salutogenic factors 85–7 predispositions to control 185–8
locus of control 185–7
self-efficacy 187–8
pregnancy 354
prejudice 150
present situation of work psychology 3–4 presenteeism 18–19, 83–5 self-rated sickness presence 18–19 pressure to attend 77–96
preventing aggression 36–7
preventive management 159–62
see also interventions
preventive stress management 309–10 goodness of fit 310
primary prevention 88, 92
primary stress prevention 159–60 principle-centred awareness 319
INDEX

privacy 462–3
problem solving 367–9 process of coaching 333–8
  accreditation 335–6
  contracting 336–7
  evaluation 337–8
  identification of need 334 positioning coaching in organization 333–4 selection of coaches 334–5
process of coping 272–4
procrastination 345
productive emotions 472–3 productivity 31–3
profile of EAPs 385–1 core technology 387–9
  definition of EAP 385
  history of EAPs 385–6
  market penetration 389–90
  scope of services 386–7 utilization 390–1
programs of management development 298–300 promoting psychological contract 20 promotion 211, 373
pseudo-transformational leadership 318 psycho-physiological reaction 223–4 psychological contract 9–23, 213–14 building 213–14
  debriefing 282–3 disturbance 50–1
  flexibility 252–3
  responses to stress 135–7
  psychologically healthy workplaces 473–4
  employee well-being 474 healthy workplace practices 474
  organizational improvements 474
  PATH model 473–4
psychometrics 342–5 psychosocial work career 257 psychosocial disequilibrium 53 psychotherapy 281, 283–4 PTSD see posttraumatic stress disorder
public health perspectives 262–4
purpose of coaching 331–33
  change management 330
  specific applications 331
  talent management 330
race to the top 414–15
racism 39–40
ramifications of work 452 randomization 475
rape 270
rat-race career 204
rational-appearing aggression 36, 40
reacting to stressful situations 101
reactivity 101
reality 446–8
reciprocity 11, 29–30, 55
recognition 278–80
recurrent coaching themes 345
redefining leadership role 318–20 redundancy 206, 210, 258, 461 reengineering 38, 240
referrals 392–3
reflection 420
regulating aggression 277 regulation obstacles 223, 239
regulatory uncertainty 223
relationship management 308–9
relevance of psychological contract 10–14 repertoire of behaviours 421 repetitive strain injury 466 research on aggression 35
research on civility 38 research into sources of stress 223–5 research models of burnout 30–40
  aggression 35
  back pain 33
  causes of incivility 39–40
  impact of incivility 39
  on incivility 38
  incivility 37–8
  instigators of incivility 38
  job tenure 31–2
  negative outcomes 35–6
  preventing aggression 36–7
  productivity 32–3
  on social support 31
  work engagement 33–5
  see also social environment of work research on occupational stress 158–63 action directions 162–3 intervention 159–62
  workplace flexibility 158–9
researching psychological contract 14–15 resilience 104–9, 113, 160, 275, 475
  beliefs about the world 104–9
  resistance to change 449
resources 225–7
  job control 225–6
  social support 226–7
  technological knowledge 226
response tendencies 109–112 responses to workplace stressors 133–9 behavioural responses 137–9 physiological responses 135–7 psychological responses 135–7 responsibility for people management 215–16 retirement preparation programs 210
INDEX

return expectancy 55
return on investment 383, 393–5
  health care value 394
  human capital value 394
  organizational value 394
see also employee assistance programs
reverse-causation hypothesis 65 revitalizing research 397–8 reward 26–8, 32, 55–6, 106, 137, 160, 214, 373 ‘right’ level of stress 205–6
rigidity 259
risk factors for acute stress 276–7 risk factors for cardiovascular disease 49–75 ROI see return on investment
role conflict 154–5, 362–3
role of job control 173–95 role of psychological contract 9–23
role transitions 461
role of workplace factors 171–292
  acute stress 269–91
  flexibility 251–65
  job control 173–95
  new technologies and stress 221–50
  stress and careers 197–220 Rousseau, Denise 10–13, 207–8 RSI see repetitive strain injury rudeness see incivility rugged individualism 356–7, 374 rumination 107
SACS see Strategic Approach to Coping Scale Sainsbury Centre for Mental Health 79 salutogenic factors of presenteeism 85–7 sanctions 422
sanctuary 321
saving face 370
scarcity hypothesis 358 schizophrenia 457 scope of EAP services 386–7 screening 396
Second World War 269
secondary prevention 88, 92 secondary stress prevention 160 secondary victimization 276 secondments 214
security 420
segregation 149
selecting coaches 334–5 self-analysis 160–1, 305, 313–14 self-awareness 304–7, 419, 441 getting in touch with feelings 305 learning intentions 305
  making appraisals 305
  paying attention to actions 305–6
tuning into senses 305
self-complexity 301–2, 358
self-doubt 418, 421
self-efficacy 104–6, 174, 187–8
self-esteem 41, 55, 100–1, 104–8, 153
self-help 314, 393
self-image 41, 372
self-management 307, 339
self-medication 62
self-rated sickness presenteeism 18–19 Self-Rating Scale for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder 275 self-sealing behaviour 300 self-service bias 41, 66, 189
senior management ownership 438–41
sense of coherence 104–5 sense of humour 458 sense-making 204
sensitivity 374–5 serious consequences of work 452 servant-leadership 317–20 characteristics of 319 set points 454
sexism 39–40, 136
sexual harassment 107, 136, 151, 157, 354, 359
shadowing 422
shared vision 300
sharing power 438–41
shock 412
shooting from the hip 374
sick leave 18–19, 35, 79, 89–90, 132, 261–3, 456 sickness presenteeism 77–96 consequences of 79–83
  definition 78–9
  implications for practice 87–92 predictors of 83–7
sinus arrhythmia 251
Sisyphus labours 447
situational engineering 435–6 skill utilization 255
skill-building exercises 422
sleep problems 50, 67–8, 110, 133, 138, 161, 355 SOC see sense of coherence social awareness 307–8
social context of work life 25–47
  definition 25–6
  predictors 26–9
  proposed model 40–4
social environment of work 29–30
social embedding 457–63
  too little 460–2
  too much 462–3
INDEX

social environment of work 29–40
  key people 29
  and research models of burnout 30–40 types of interaction 29–30 social isolation 129–30, 227, 360, 462
social radar 308
social rationales 41–4
  incorporation into conceptual model 43–4 social support 31, 33–5, 57, 226–7, 256–8
  introduction to demand–control model 256–8
  iso-strain 57, 256
  working life career 257–8
  workplace 57
socialization 211
socioeconomic disadvantage 53, 100, 135 somatic symptoms 88–9, 182, 187, 208, 274, 357, 370 sources of career development support 314–15
  career-planning courses 315
  counsellor assistance 314–15 organizational programs 315
  self-help 314
sources of stress 223–5
special populations’ programs 213
specialized training 280 specific applications of coaching 333 spiritual arena 321
stability 13, 448–9
staff communication 433
stand-up comedians 414 Stanford University 134 stars 463
status 360
staying alive 320–2
  community arena 322
  family arena 321
  spiritual arena 321
stepped care model 285
stereotyping 40, 130–2, 139, 150–1, 363 stigma 278
strain-based conflict 363 Strategic Approach to Coping Scale 365
  at home 362
  and careers 197–220
  everyday reality 446–8
  and gender 123–46
  and health 99–121
  and new technologies 221–50 and organizational culture 411–26
  and stress 413–16
  and women 357–9
stress management 206–9
  stress management practices 210–15
  advertising 210
  assessment centers 211
  building psychological contracts 213–14 career counselling 212–13
  career workshops 212
  common career paths 214–15
  cross-functional experience 210
  dual ladder 211
  education 210
  induction 211
  mentoring 211–12
  pamphlets on career issues 211
  performance appraisal 212
  retirement preparation programs 210
  secondments 214
  special populations programs 213
  succession planning 213
  written career planning 214 stressors in the workplace 353–5 studies of psychological contract 15–20 styling 459
subclinical arteriosclerosis 177 success 415
succession planning 213
suicide 269, 271, 277, 389 supermothers 363
supervision 335–6, 414
support at work 36, 278–80, 293–408
  at home 363–4
  coaching 329–52
  employee assistance programs 383–407
  integration of 434
  management development 295–327
  women’s coping 353–82 survival of the fittest 373 survivor sickness 461 suspicion 457
suspicious leadership 415
system installation 241
systems thinking 300
systolic blood pressure 59–60 tackling career-related stress 209 taking action to improve well-being 434–42 influencing senior managers 442
  senior management ownership 438–41
  taking responsibility 438–41 talent management 332, 346
  case example 346
  targets of incivility 38 task challenge 450
team learning 300
teamwork 373–4
technological knowledge 226
technology 221–50
INDEX

tedium 364
telecommuting 158
temporary employment 456
tertiary prevention 88, 92
tertiary stress prevention 160–2 testosterone 258–9
theoretical approaches to job stress 271–2 time in use 465
therapeutic intervention 471–2 time 1–6
time-based conflict 363 tiredness 451–2
tokens 129
tolerance of stress 198–9, 215 high-pace fit 199
  low-pace fit 198–9
  overload-related stress 199
  underload-related stress 199 tool-box talks 434
tools for coaching 339–40 torture 270
training 36, 241–3, 335–6, 435
transactional definition of stress 222, 270–1 transformation 418–23
  changing behaviour 421–2
  creating shared mindset 418–21
  institutionalizing change 422
  transforming organizations 422–3 transformational coaching 338–9 transforming organizations 422–3
transient insomnia 63 transitional coaching 338–9 trauma 113, 175, 270–2 triggers of stress 200–4 tuning into senses 305
turf fights 413
turnover 31–2, 456
  high levels of 456
  intentions 31–2
Twin Towers 271
types of workplace interaction 29–30 UCF see universal competency framework unbalanced social exchange 463 uncertainty 421
underload-related stress 199 understanding intervention starting point 428–9 unemployment 227 unique stressors 123–46, 359 to women 359
universal competency framework 340 upward mobility 211
usability engineering 234, 239–41 use of coaching in organizations 329–31 definition of 330–1
  history of 329–30
user-oriented hard- and software design 239–41
  analysis and specification 240
  iterative development 240–1
  system installation 241 utilization of EAPs 390–1
Utrecht Work Engagement Scale 28
UWES see Utrecht Work Engagement Scale vacillation 415
value added to workplace 315–16
value congruence 28
value of improving well-being 440–1
  benefits 430 costs 430–1
  values and burnout 26–9
variation in care 284–5
venting 138, 161, 282
victimization intervention program 279–82 crisis 279–80
  evaluation 280
  extraordinary leave 281
  large-scale disaster 281
  organizational culture 280–1
  posttraumatic stress disturbances 280 practical assistance 280
  recognition 280
  specialized training 280
  see also interventions
violence 271–9, 285–6 Vitamin Model 238
vulnerability 104–9
  beliefs about the world 104–9
walking the talk 411 watchful waiting 280
weakness 150, 371
well-being 9–23, 409–70, 474 improvement of 427–43 organizational approaches to 409–70 psychological contract and 15–20 see also health and well-being well-being initiative wish list 429–30 wellness see well-being what EAPs do 386–7
  program type 387
white noise 462
Whitehall Study II 137
whole-life model 300–3 Winnicott, Donald M. 420 win–lose strategy 289, 296 within-group gender stressors 139–40 women coping 353–82
  communal orientation 364–5
emphasis on individualistic orientation 360–1 home-based support 363–4 how multiaxial model changes coping assumptions 367–72 implications for intervention 372–4 influence of stress 357–9
model of rugged individualism 356–7 multiaxial model of coping 365–7 stress at home 362
summary and conclusions 374–5
unique job-related stressors 359 work–family role conflict 362–3 workplace stressors 353–5
workplace support 359–60 see also managerial women; working women work 448–53 effective 450–3 everyday 448–9
work engagement 25–47
work environment 453–66
compatibility of convictions, values and goals 463–6
orderliness 453–7
social embedding 457–63
work experiences among managerial women 147–69 work life context 25–47
work stress and individual differences 99–121 goals and aspirations 102–4 mechanisms of stress experiences 100–2 response tendencies 109–12
summary and conclusions 112–13
vulnerability and resilience 104–9 workgroup incivility 39 working life career 257–8
working women 124–32
discrimination and stereotyping 130–2
lack of career progress 126–30
multiple conflicting roles 124–6
see also managerial women; women coping work–family conflict 32, 126, 138, 148, 155–6, 362–3 work–life balance 2–3, 12, 17, 21, 126, 340, 388, 444, 474
workplace flexibility 158–9
workplace mental health 383–5
need for EAPs 383–5
workplace social support 57
workplace stressors 353–5
workplace support 359–60
World Health Organization 135, 384, 397 written personal career planning 214 wrong type of success 202 yoga 161
YouTube 439
zero tolerance 160
zone of competence 316–17